National Service Organization Bestows Highest Honor to 5 Members

The National Exchange Club is proud to announce that five of its members will be inducted into the organization’s Court of Honor on Sat., Oct. 18, 2014. The event will begin with a reception at 4 p.m. followed by the ceremony at 5 p.m., at Exchange’s National Headquarters, 3050 Central Ave., Toledo, OH. Inductees will include Past National President (2007-2008) Robert Alan Davidson, Tucson, AZ; Past National President (1999-2000) Robert D. Harb, Plaistow, NH; Past National President (2006-2007) S. Kim Hodges, Provo, UT; posthumously, Past District President (2001-2002) Fenton C. Miller, Jr., Charleston, SC; and Past National President (2012-2013) Lou Molitor, Kenosha, WI.

Induction into the Court of Honor bestows the highest and most lasting recognition an Exchangite can receive. Honorees, and guests, are invited to an annual induction ceremony where their permanently inscribed names are unveiled on one of the seven granite monuments in the Court of Honor courtyard. There are more than 90 names inscribed on the Court of Honor pylons, including Charles Berkey, the founder of Exchange; Dr. Edward R. North, Jr., founder of The National Exchange Club Foundation for the Prevention of Child Abuse; Thomas L. Bailey, author of the Covenant of Service; and Herold M. Harter, who served as Exchange’s National Secretary for 44 years.

Exchange is America’s oldest service club with more than 650 clubs and nearly 20,000 members throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. The organization’s Mission, working to make America’s communities better places to live, is carried out through its Programs of Service – Americanism, Youth Programs and Community Service – as well as the National Project, the prevention of child abuse. Founded in 1911 in Detroit, MI, and headquartered in Toledo, OH, Exchange celebrated its 103rd anniversary in March 2014. www.nationalexchangeclub.org
